The Assistant Professors, all Party members are:

Dr. Long
Dr. Poliseric
Dr. Culinovic.

3. The Secretary of the University Committee is a Communist student named Marko Sarle. He is alleged to be the most important figure at the University. The University Committee, composed entirely of Communists, is directed by Sarle. In addition, each grade or year of the Economics School has its own special committee. Students are divided into groups, or "cells" of approximately twenty students, each group being headed by Communists who manage and control all the members under them.

4. The most important subjects taught are: Das Capital; Marxism and Leninism; political economy and pre-military training.

5. All students are required to eat at the University mess. Food is poor, insufficient and without variety except during visits by foreign students visiting at the University. Construction of "Student" Town has been slow despite intensive propaganda.

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
